

CANCER SUPPORT GROUP

CANCER INSTITUTE

Tampa General Hospital's Cancer Support Group is designed to benefit people living with cancer: patients, family members, caregivers, and close friends. Those who attend have an opportunity to share personal stories, gain practical information, and receive emotional support from others in similar circumstances.

Group meetings are held every 4th Thursday of most months and are led by professionally trained staff who ensure that certain ground rules are followed. For all cancer-related inquiries, contact your oncology provider.
